Miss Juliette Chow Fee Teh(周斐德) or Julia Chow alias Chow Chi Peh(周起白) alias Mrs. T.K. Chow(周子堯).

It is said she is a native of Fokien, age about 30, staying for the past two years in Apt 106, Empire Mansions, 153 Route de Say Zoong (Tel. 74556). Owns car, French licence No.1303, said to have been presented to her by a Portuguese friend who visits her frequently.

Her husband T.K. Chow was during the Nationalist regime prior to the Sino-Japanese hostilities employed in the Central Research Institute, 37 Brenan Road (now defunct). He left her soon after the outbreak of war, probably proceeding to Chungking. She then cohabited with a German, name unknown, who after some 18 months departed for Hongkong. She became intimate with an Italian said to be connected with the Defense Force and after breaking relations with him, she has been seen in the company of a Portuguese. She left for Hongkong in August 1939, returned in September, again departed for Hongkong in October and returned in November 1939.
